

Each competitor may only compete from one studio. Competitors may not compete against themselves. This Is It reserves the right to add or subtract days to the event pending on the number of registered entries. If a Tii event is cancelled, studios will receive a refund of the full amount paid. This Is It reserves the right to determine the amount of all cash awards based on registration, at its discretion. Videotaping, and photography are prohibited at any Tii event inside the theatre. Adult categories will not be eligible for an overall award. Soloists will be separated into separate groups on the occasion that 10 or more soloists fall into one particular category. No refunds will be issued for any reason. This Is It will not be held responsible for injuries, damage and lost or stolen property over the duration of any Tii event. Birth certificates are not required, however if there is a discrepancy it will need to be provided by the end of the competition. Failure to do so will result in disqualification for that specific entry. Performances are videotaped for judges' critiques as well as sales and advertising purposes. This Is It reserves the right to use photographs and video of dancers taken at the venue for promotional purposes. In order to accommodate larger props, participants must make note of them on the registration form along with setup times. All marks are final. Awards are based on scores and not on placement in a category, therefore there could be several medals handed out in the same age category. In the event of a tie, both numbers will receive the same award and placement. Any changes that need to be made must be made 15 days prior to the competition start date. All changes must be written and approved by Tii. If a contestant wishes to change their scheduled performance they must do so before the category competes or they will not be placed in their category and given an overall award. In the event that enough dancers are missing from a routine to change the division of the category, studios must notify Tii prior to the category. Tap sounds on recordings of tap entries will result in a 5pt deduction. Any studio, dancer or parent that abuses the designated dressing area will be disqualified. All participants are responsible for cleaning their area and properly disposing of all garbage. Competitors should be ready to perform 1 hour before their scheduled time, in case competition is ahead of schedule. All prize money is awarded to the studio only. Independent entries are permitted and eligible for overalls. Acro Tricks, 3 points will be deducted per trick over the amount allowed in the category.